Brief description of complaint:

How can your complaint be resolved to your satisfaction?

Complaints must be first be submitted to the travel agency in writing to try to resolve the issue. If you are unable to resolve the the issue ACTA will review the file on your behalf if the travel agency is an ACTA member. Copies of pertinent supporting documents (airline ticket copies, credit card receipts, etc.) should be sent to ACTA. Do not send originals as ACTA cannot be responsible for safeguarding and returning all documentation. Retain your original documents in case they are required for legal or regulatory actions. Please note that ACTA provides informal mediation for travel-related disputes only. We are not a governmental or regulatory organization; we cannot impose penalties or fines on a member agency or force a member to refund money or to deliver compensation of any kind. However, ACTA will do our best to help to resolve disputes in ways that are fair to all parties.

ACTA National Office:
